	CLASSIFICATI	ON SECURITY INFORMATION
COUNTRY -	Approved For Re	lease 2002/07/26 : CIA-RDP80 00810A001300620009-0
TOPIC	Cahaawralda Africa ald	25X1A
EVALUATION	man halas	PLACE OBTAINED 25X1A
DATE OF CO	ONTENT22 March +0 2	7 March 1052
DATE OBTAI	NEO	DATE PREPARED 29 April 1952
	25X1A
REFERENCE	Residence de la company de la
PAGES	ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
REMARKS_	Madelater ville in the complete the complete complete the complete
Michigan Michigan Constant Con	no "della quinca mpi della districcia sinte ndenden arma-vide armamentando» zerek, 12 desp - i buellak, a de sign	MANUATE AND
	т жимения менения менения при при при менения по при	gypersen politika ang na sengangan paganggan pa
000000
SOURCE		25X1X
05)//)/
25X1X	Mrs Callandar abanema	blome some made at Cale source and a state of all decime and at the
°	to 27 March 1953:	tions were made at Schoenwalde airfield from 22 March
25X1X	Two twin-engine aircre 23 and 24 March: No a 25 March: At 10 a.m. landed at 1 p.m., after there was night off and landed, the rewas believed to be in	, no air activity was observed in spite of fair weather, aft were parked in the southern portion of the field. air activity was observed. , a PO-2 was flying circles over the field. The plane er making some intermediate landings. From 7 to 8:30 p.m., flying by 2 twin-engine planes. When the planes took unway was lighted by searchlights. Another searchlight operation at Staaken airfield. However, no flying ivity was observed.
2.	From 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on 27 March, no air activity was observed at the field. Ten twin-engine planes with double rudder assemblies were parked at the field, 6 of which were in front of the hangar. A twin-engine plane with single rudder assembly was also seen.
	of Schoenwalde airfie	eport indicates that there were no changes in the occupation ld, which is still believed to be occupied by a target-tow -2s. The unit cooperates with the Ftr regiments of the y.
•

00

CLASSIFICATION SECRET